WILLIAM JOHNSTON.

FOR BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS,

FOR CONGRESS,
JOHN WELCH, of Athens.

Local Platform for 1850.

The following resolutions were adopted at the Democratic Convention, which assembled in Columbus, on the 4th of July, 1850. Let the PEOPLE OF OHIO READ AND REMEMBER THEM:

Resolved, That with reference to the currency question, the Democracy of Ohio plants itself upon the Constitution of the United States. The currency fixed by that instrument we desire to restore and establish, and we will use all legal and honorable means to accomplish this object, and being sincerely opposed to the existence of banks for the circulation of paper money, we are utterly opposed to any feature being incorporated into the new Constitution, by which the Legislature of Ohio would have the power to create any bank for the circulation of paper money.

Resolved, That we consider it the duty of all our public officers, after taking the oath to support the Constitution of the United States, to make all payments, in their official capacity, in constitutional currency, instead of paper money; and that we especially demand from the Board of Public Works, that they convert all paper money which may come under their control into specie, and in that shape disburse it.

Resolved, That banks of circulation are hostile alike to the equal rights of the people, and the principles of sound political economy; that hard money is the only currency recognized by the Constitution, the only currency that degrades no man, the only currency that is expedient and just; and we hold it to be inconsistent with the principles of the party for democrats to participate in creating or upholding banking institutions.

Hard Money Report of the Currency Committee in the Constitutional Convention, July 5th.

Sec. 1. The General Assembly shall have no power to create any bank or banking institution whatever, or to authorize the making, emission or putting in circulation of any bill of credit, bond, check, ticket, certificate, promissory note, or other paper money, intended to circulate as money or currency.

Sec. 2. The General Assembly shall prohibit by law any person or persons, association, company or corporation, now in existence, from exercising the privilege of banking, or creating, emitting or putting in circulation any bank notes, or paper of any description, whatever, to circulate as money or currency.

Sec. 3. The business of banking and dealing in money shall be free to all, subject to such restrictions as may be provided by law, but no special privileges or exemptions shall ever be granted to those engaged in, or to those who may hereafter be engaged in such business; nor shall any person or persons, either natural or artificial, ever be allowed to deal in or issue paper money, so called.

JOHN LARWILL, Chairman.
Here it is, fellow-citizens! Read it! Ponder it! Make up your minds, democrats, how many of you are willing to stand on that platform.

Mr. S. A. NASH, who has for a number of months assisted in the editorial department of the Journal, will continue to be associated with the subscriber in the same department.

JAS. HARPER.

The Whig Candidate for the 12th District.

The name of JOHN WELCH, the Whig nominee for Congress from this district, stands at the head of our columns, where it will remain until we have the pleasure of announcing his election in October. It will be quite unnecessary for us to say anything to the Whigs of Gallia upon the merits of Mr. Welch for the position in which the Whigs of the district have expressed a desire and determination to place him. As one who has heretofore been frequently and favorably mentioned as the Whig candidate for Congress, as a member of the Senate of Ohio, as an able lawyer with an extensive practice, as a Whig, good and true, he is familiarly known. In the election of Mr. Welch we have every assurance that we shall secure a Representative able and attentive—a worthy successor of our present distinguished member.

It was gratifying to see the unanimity and good will with which the nomination was ratified by the Convention, and the confident assurances, given by delegates from every part of the district, on dispersion, that the nomination would receive as hearty a confirmation from the people as it had received from their delegates. Of Mr. Welch's election there can be no doubt. We trust and believe that Gallia county will cast her full Whig strength for this nomination, as has the county of Athens extended to the member from our own county.

Legislative Nominations.
E. Battelle is the Whig candidate for Representative for Washington county O. F. Moore, Esq., of Portsmouth, for Lawrence and Scioto.

We call the attention of Shippers and others to the card, in another column, of Messrs. LIGGETT & HALL, Forwarding and Commission Merchants, Cincinnati, Ohio. They are prompt business men, and any thing entrusted to them will be attended to without delay.

The Legislature Convention.
Meets at Wilkesville Saturday next. We understand that the Whig Cen. Com. of this county have empowered the county delegates to that convention (with the promise of candidates to abide by the decision) to make nominations for county officers. Jackson county promises to be there in full strength. As we have before said, there is nothing, with discreet action at that convention, to prevent the election of our candidates by handsome majorities. Never were the prospects better for a full and united Whig vote in Gallia than now.

The Locos hold their Congressional convention at the same time and place.
JUDGE JOHNSTON.—A gentleman from this county who conversed with our candidate for Governor in Cleveland, was informed by him, that he should endeavor to visit our county before the election. We hope he will be able to do so. We are mistaken if he does not suit Gallia Whigs to a T.

Gen. Hinton, of Delaware county, was arrested at Cleveland last week on a charge of robbing the mail.—He made his escape during the night. The post office agent has offered $1000 for his apprehension and delivery.

CONGRESS—ADJOURNMENT.—There seems to be a disposition on the part of the majority not to fix a day for adjournment, till they can see the way clear for the Texas and California bills. The House has indicated its determination to pass the Texas bill with the $10,000,000 clause.

Mr. JACKSON will accept of our thanks for late Pittsburgh papers.

We are also indebted to Mr. MONTAGUE for a Cincinnati paper.

We are again placed under obligations to Mr. J. A. ROBINSON, clerk of the fine steamer Lydia Collins, for late favors.

VIRGINIA—Convention Election. Our returns are still meager and partial, as the election did not close till Saturday night, but they leave no room for doubt that the friends of a Radically Reformed Constitution have swept the State. Old party lines were generally disregarded, as was right, and nobody knows nor cares how many of the Delegates are called Whig or call themselves Democrats. Enough that Virginia awakes from her slumber of half a century, resolved to have a truly Republican Constitution. She thinks she has talked Democracy long enough to begin to act it. Not a bad idea.—N. Y. Tribune.

From Wood co. district, Messrs. Johnson, Snodgrass, (Loco,) Camden and Van Winkle (Whig) are elected to the convention.

For the Kanawha and Greenbrier district, the returns indicate the election of Summers and Price. We have not the returns which enable us to designate the others.

For Mason and Cabell district, E. W. McComas, F. G. L. Buchring and probably Fisher, of Mason.

Nominations for Congress.

The following are all the nominations for Congress in this State, of which we have yet seen notices:

District. Whig. Loco.
4th. B. M. Stanton.
9th. P. Van Trump. E. B. Olds.
10th. Sam'l Galloway. C. Sweetzer.
13th. Wm. E. Finck. J. M. Gaylord.
14th. Alexander Harper.
12th. John Welch.
11th. J. L. Taylor.

Belmont Dis.—Hunter, Whig, T. L. Jewett, Loco.
Dayton Dis.—Gen. Bell, whig.

Dr. MYERS.—The Fincastle (Va.) Democrat inserts our notice of the charge of forgery against Dr. Myers, and adds:

This is the same Doctor Myers that figured about Fincastle some two or three years ago. Forging seems to be the doctor's besetting sin, for it is said that he left this place under charges of the same kind.

Mr. Burris, the Locofoco nominee for Representative from Gallia and Jackson, was the candidate of the same party for the same office four years ago, when he was defeated by Gen. Holcomb.

We understand that a young man was badly injured, a few days ago, at Mr. Henry Hannon's, a few miles below this place, by the cylinder of a thrashing machine bursting.

2000 Reward.

The Commissioners of Pike County have offered a reward of two hundred dollars for the apprehension and delivery of Zachariah Cook the murderer of Wm. Slaven, to the Sheriff or Prosecuting Attorney of that county. We are informed, that he was seen near his residence in Liberty township in this county, on Monday last.—Jackson Standard.

On motion R. T. Van Horn, of Meigs, N. R. England, of Hocking, J. D. Johnson, of Athens, C. D. Greene, of Gallia, and John F. Steele, of Lawrence, were appointed a committee on Resolutions.

On motion, the Convention then proceeded to ballot for a Candidate for Congress.

Mr. Titus, of Meigs, nominated V. B. Horton.

Mr. Johnson, of Athens, nominated John Welch.

Mr. Perry, of Gallia, nominated Simeon Nash.

On the 6th ballot John Welch, Esq., of Athens, having received a majority of all the votes given was declared duly nominated.

Whereupon, on motion the nomination was unanimously confirmed.

Mr. Van Horn of Meigs, from the committee on resolutions reported the following, which were unanimously adopted.

Resolved, That we in common with the whole country, mourn the untimely death of our late Chief Magistrate, ZACHARY TAYLOR, who had shown himself devotedly attached to our glorious Union—an unwavering adherent of the Constitution of his country—and that the highest praise we can bestow is a reiteration of his dying words—"he endeavored to do his duty."

Resolved, That in MILLARD FILLMORE, we recognize a statesman of tried reputation—a Whig in whom is no guile—a President to whom the great interests of the country can be safely confided.

Resolved, That we fully endorse the message of President Fillmore in relation to New Mexico, expressing his determination to uphold the rights of the United States against the usurpations of Texas, to the full extent of the powers conferred upon him by the Constitution and Laws of the General Government.

Resolved, That we approve the recommendation of the late President in relation to the admission of California and New Mexico—separate and distinct with their Constitutions and boundaries.

Resolved, That we look upon the nomination of WILLIAM JOHNSTON, our candidate for Governor, as one eminently "fit to be made"—and we hereby pledge our united efforts to place him in the gubernatorial chair.

Resolved, That we again reiterate the good old time honored Whig doctrine of Protection to American Labor, and ask of Congress to restore the salutary policy of specific duties.

Resolved, That we heartily approve of the nomination of JOHN WELCH, Esq., as our candidate for Congress—as a true and tried Whig and a man every way worthy of the united support of the Whigs of this District.

Resolved, That in parting with the services of Hon. SAMUEL F. VINTON, in the House of Representatives of the United States, we cannot consent to a severance of the relations so long subsisting between us, without expressing our regret at an event which deprives our District of a faithful Representative, and the Union of one of her most able and sagacious statesmen.

Resolved, That our confidence in him is unshaken, and that he possesses the undiminished respect of the Whigs of the 12th Congressional District of Ohio.

On motion of Col. Donnelly, of Meigs, the officers of the convention were ordered to transmit a copy of the resolution relative to Mr. Vinton, to that gentleman.

On motion, Col. A. Donnelly, and L. Jewett, Esq., appointed a committee to inform Mr. Welch of his nomination.

On motion, the proceedings of this convention were ordered to be published in the Whig papers of this District and in the Ohio State Journal.

On motion, the Convention adjourned sine die.

Correspondence of the Baltimore Patriot.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28, 1850.

The tone and temper of Congress to-day were admirable, and argued favorably for the future.

The Senate acted for a short time on the bill from the House, granting bounty land to soldiers and officers in all the old wars and to soldiers in the late war with Mexico, and then went into executive session. The only nomination confirmed that I have heard of was that of Mr. Lathrop, the Navy Agent for this District.

The House took up the Texas boundary bill from the Senate. Mr. Hilliard made a most eloquent speech in favor of settling the great question which disturbs and distracts the country, and restoring peace to the people and safety to the Union. It was a speech which did his clear head and pure heart honor.

Mr. Inge had moved that the bill should be rejected—the most abrupt and summary way of showing contempt for a measure. Under the action of the previous question, the vote was taken. A deathlike stillness pervaded the Hall as members answered to their names. The result was auspicious. There were but 24 members who voted to reject the bill, and 168 who voted against rejecting it. So much for so much.

The resignation of Mr. McKennan of the office of Secretary of the Department of the Interior, was received by President Fillmore, as is understood. It is deeply to be regretted that so great, honest and good man, and one so universally esteemed and beloved for his many excellent qualities of head and heart, should have found it incompatible with health and inclinations to preside at the head of that highly important Department of the Government.

Who will fill the vacancy is a conjecture on every one's tongue. It is understood that the appointment will be given to a Southern man. Some have named Judge Arthur P. Hopkins of Alabama.

What a glorious Whig Cabinet President Fillmore would then have!

Having never deceived your readers intentionally, and meaning never to deceive them, I would not now say, if I did not fully believe it to be true, that the members of the present Cabinet will ere long make removals and appointments which will rejoice the hearts of the Whigs from one extremity of the Union to the other.

Aug. 29.

SENATE.—The bill granting bounty land to the persons engaged in the war of 1812, and other wars, was taken up.

The question was on an amendment proposed by the Committee on Public Lands, authorizing the recipients to take in lieu of their land warrants scrip for $100 for 160 acres, $50 for 80 acres, and $25 for 40 acres.

Mr. Mason moved to amend the amendment, by providing that the scrip shall be for the full value of the land, at the rate of $1.25 per acre, to be receivable as money for land.

A debate ensued, and without taking any vote, the bill was postponed, and the Senate proceeded to the consideration of Executive business, and some time after the Senate adjourned.

Aug. 30.

SENATE.—The bill granting lands to Michigan to aid in the construction of a canal, connecting Lake Superior and Lake Michigan, was taken up and debated at length, the question of internal improvements being incidentally discussed. The question being taken, the bill was ordered to be engrossed and read a third time.

The Senate then went into executive session, and subsequently adjourned to Monday.

HOUSE.—The House resumed the consideration of the report made yesterday by Mr. Stanley, that Ritchie and Seignast refused to answer certain questions put to them by the select committee appointed in May last, to ascertain the author of the Bundelcomb essays, published in the Union, and other matters pertaining to electioneering by democrats in office during the last presidential election.

One of the resolutions pending was to bring Ritchie & Seignast before the House for contempt.

Mr. Fitch justified Messrs. Ritchie & Seignast for not answering the questions.

The whole day was occupied in discussing resolutions to bring Ritchie before the bar of the House, and debating the Texas boundary bill, and adjourned without coming to a conclusion on either question.

To the Whigs of Gallia county.

GENTLEMEN: Taking into consideration the lateness of the season, and that consequently the farmers from this time until the election, will be almost daily engaged on their farms, it is therefore proposed that the Delegates who were elected to the Legislative Convention, which meets at Wilkesville, on Saturday, the 7th inst., be authorized to make a nomination for County Auditor and for County Commissioner. The candidates who are now before the people have been consulted, and have agreed to abide the decision of the convention. Believing that the Whigs of Gallia county would be satisfied with the selection so made, we therefore recommend the adoption of the above proposition.

V. M. Fittor, Sec'y.

CALIFORNIA.—Mr. C. W. Hoy, from this county, writes us from Deer Creek, Yuba county, California. The letter is dated June 28th. We are compelled to omit a portion of it for want of space. He says:

I have recently met with quite a number of Gallia county boys, among whom are the following persons: Joseph A. Robinson, Charles Giles, Wm. F. Rathburn, G. W. Thomson, Isaac Evans, B. Hawk, Alonzo Wells, and Jacob Devault. They all look rugged and hearty, and are doing about as well as miners in general.

All the Gallia county boys with whom I have met are in the "Cuyota diggings," on the hills immediately west of Deer Creek. These "diggings" present a queer looking sight. We dig into the side of the hills, generally digging from five to six feet deep, six feet long and four wide. We then burrow under ground.

We have some fine shade trees here, and some of the finest timber I ever saw. There is a pine tree close by my cabin, that measures a little over ten feet in diameter, and is about 250 in height.

The miners are generally enjoying good health, and on an average make from eight to ten dollars per day. Flour is selling at 25c per lb; pork 40; butter 1.50 per lb; potatoes 75c; onions 1.50 per lb., and other things in proportion.

GOV. SHANNON.—A letter from the Ex Governor, to D. Peck, Esq., of St. Clairsville, states that he has been and remains quite sick—that he is anxious to get out of that "Italian climate"—that he is a little better off in money matters than when he left, &c. He says—"I see too many people sick to recommend this place (San Francisco) as healthy." The Governor adds that Hon. T. B. King's Report does not contain a word of truth—that "the people of the States are certainly deranged with regard to California"—and writes, upon the whole, very discouragingly.

Last Moments and Execution of Professor Webster.

Boston, Aug. 30.

Prof. Webster, after his family left him last night, as he confidently alleged, in perfect unconsciousness of his coming fate, was searched and placed in a new cell, in order to prevent any attempted suicide. Dr. Putnam left him at 9 o'clock last night, and from that time till 12 he passed the time in devotional conversation with his watches. At 12 o'clock he fell into a short dose, but did not sleep heavily—awaking at times and conversing. He spoke of his impending fate with fortitude and resignation, and seemed quite grateful that the time of his death had been kept from his family.

At the various noises of the dawn of the new day he seemed to be somewhat agitated, but soon recovered his composure. By advice he breakfasted upon tea, with bread, inviting the officers to partake with him, and furnished them with bread. He made preparations for ascending the scaffold with firmness.

About 300 persons were admitted to the jail-yard, and the house-top adjoining the jail were crowded with persons, among whom were many ladies. The streets near the jail also crowded, but not densely.

At 8 o'clock this morning the last religious ceremonies were commenced by Dr. Putnam, consisting of a fervent prayer. He invoked the present spirit and grace of God for him so soon to die. He prayed that the prisoner's repentance might be accepted, and that he might be prepared to meet death. Mr. Jones was the officer that attended the Professor throughout the protracted scene, and he as well as Lighton, were very kind and attentive to the unfortunate Professor.

Last night Dr. Putnam remained more than two hours with Dr. Webster, engaged in devotional exercises. When Dr. Putnam left, Professor Webster continued his devotions at intervals, and conversed with considerable freedom with the officers, being fully conscious of his doom. He repeatedly said he had great dread and horror at the thought of being hung, but was indifferent to it. He said he had no fear—was perfectly prepared to meet his fate. His appearance through the night confirmed his statement of being reconciled and resigned. His health remained good, and his spirits also.—He had apparently not lost any flesh during his imprisonment, but probably gained.

The erection of the gallows was commenced after daylight, and completed before 8 o'clock. Upon the requisition of high sheriff Eveleth, a force of 125 men, consisting of 100 police and watchmen, 25 constables, were detailed for guard, of whom 25 constables were stationed within the yard, and 75 without. The scaffold was in the centre of the yard, and more open to the outside than it would have been at any other spot. The scaffold was changed from the northwest corner to the centre of the yard, and did not diminish the view from the rear of the building on Lowell-st., and added much to the view from Leverett-st. The officers present at the execution were high sheriff J. Eveleth, deputy sheriffs Watson Freeman, Daniel J. Coburn, Jabez Pratt, Erasmus Rugg, Benj. F. Bailly and Joseph Coburn. The witnesses invited by the high sheriff and by state authority, numbered 125, and were admitted at 10 minutes before 9. The high sheriff called the names on the list of witnesses to the execution; and he stated that they had assembled by his invitation, as lawful witnesses of the execution of John W. Webster, and he requested them to keep order during the solemn ceremonies.

A company then formed in a column of two and two, and visited the prisoner's cell, where the Rev. Dr. Putnam offered a prayer. The hall leading to the cell was full, and stillness and solemnity prevailed.—The witnesses returned to the yard. At 20 minutes before ten, high sheriff Eveleth, attended by deputies Coburn, Freeman, Rugg, and others, conducted Webster to the scaffold.—The last duty of the sheriff was then performed. Professor Webster died firmly, and penitentially, and with hardly a struggle.

CLEVELAND AND VICINITY.—The population of Cleveland is ascertained by the census takers to be 17,600. In 1840 it was only 6,026! A year ago it was 16,504. The population of Ohio City is now 4,523; that of Brooklyn 2,125; that of Bedford 1,853, and that of Parma 1,329. Tiffin, Ohio.—According to the returns just returned, Tiffin has a population of 2,718. Deaths within the year, 47.

Jackson.

Mr. T. R. MATTHEWS, Deputy Marshal of this district, has been taking the census of this town during the past week, and reports that the town of Jackson has a population of about five hundred, and that Lick township has a population of about sixteen hundred and fifty.
